Pastoral Letter

Dear IMC family,

Greetings to you in the mighty name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ!

Last month was the month of 'Divine Encounters' with our Lord. All services were filled with the amazing word of God, the church witnessed the divine touch and many were in tears. The month was enriched with the abounding grace of God to our Children, Youths, young adults, men and women, Senior Citizens to spend time with God. Thank God for being with us all through the past months.

Thank all those who earnestly prayed, supported and participated in all Sunday services, Area fellowships, Morning IMC online prayer time, Wednesday Bible studies, and especially all those who generously contributed towards the people of Manipur. By God's grace, our IMC team had been physically present and distributed the groceries and other essential things to the needy and persecuted fellow believers in Manipur.

The theme of this month is "Gratitude- Living A Life of Thankfulness" : A.W. Tozer said, "Gratitude is an offering precious in the sight of God, and it is one that the poorest of us can make and be not poorer but richer for having made it." As we begin the 11th month of this year, let us rejoice in giving thanks to the Lord our God for His abounding grace, mercy and blessing on each one of us.

Indeed October 7th 2023 was one of the tragic days in the History of Mankind. Let us pray for the people of Israel and Gaza. Every day it brings new stories of terrorism, war, natural disaster, violence, human trafficking, poverty, and many more evil things. Sometimes, the uncertainty, struggles and tragedies lead us to worry and forget God and His goodness. Also during Apostle Paul's time was much similar or even greater difficulties than what we are facing today. Paul being the prisoner, found himself in jail but still never disappointed with his life, never blamed God for his difficulties but humbly surrendered his life to Christ.

Colossians 2:6-7, 'Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.' Here, the Apostle Paul reminds the Colossians to be humble and thankful to Christ in all circumstance because of two reasons.

1- We belong to Christ: Paul urges his congregation to be greatly thankful for receiving Christ as their Lord. This simply means that we belong to Him and we don't have any authority over ourselves. When Paul was invited to speak before the philosophers of Athens, his limited opportunity forced him to focus on matters of extreme importance. One of these was his emphasis on the origin of life. He confidently affirmed that God is the one who gives life and breath and everything to all mankind. "He himself gives to all mankind life and breath and everything" (Acts 17:25). Later, in his letter, he reminded Timothy that the Creator is the one who "gives life to all things," (1 Tim. 6:13). Thus, Paul uses 'therefore' in v.6 as a transition from one thing to another, from mere life to worthy life, from thoughts to practical, from principle to practice to live worthy and be thankful to Him in all circumstance.

2 -We are Rooted, Built and Established in Him: Paul provides three metaphors to show the importance of walking worthy and to be thankful in Him. The first metaphor he used is rooted. "Rooted" is an idiom for strength influenced by the source of another strength and stability. A tree's roots go deep into the soil and nourish it from the ground, so is our life deeply rooted in Christ to bear much fruit for Him. Paul says in Rom 11:18 You do not support the root, but the root supports you. We are the branches and He is the root. John 15:4 says, "No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me." In the same way to bear good fruit we need to be rooted in Christ. Secondly, he uses architectural metaphor "Built". This means "to be built upon a solid foundation or superstructure." The building stability is decided on the foundation it has. If the foundation is strong, building can withstand any kinds of hurdles. Jesus used the same metaphor to conclude His sermon on the mount. (Matt 7:24-27). In the similar way he uses the metaphor 'Established in the faith', the word establish means to be accepted, secured or to be firm. Paul uses this metaphor to encourage us that we are accepted and secured in Him. All these metaphors, are used to prove that Jesus Christ is the strength, base and firmness for our life, without him we are powerless, baseless and weak. As a result of thanks giving and walking worthy to Him is recorded in Philippians 4:7 "And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."

Let this month be the month of gratitude and live a life of thanksgiving to Him. Let us contribute generously and cheerfully towards our Harvest Festival on Nov 12th. Remember that we are the branches and He is the root, we are the buildings but He is the foundation, we have faith but He establishes it. As Paul says in v.7, 'Abounding in thanksgiving,' let us show our attitude of gratitude to the Lord with our body, mind and wealth and experience God's Peace which transcends all understanding.

We, the Pastoral team assure you all of our prayers.

May God Bless You.

Beautiful and Broken

I was walking in my garden, when I saw a beautiful red-faced a small bird on the ground, had been attacked by a predator and was dragging a broken wing. I gathered the bird in my hands it must've seemed to be rough hands. Perhaps because feared more abuse like had already endured, fighting, screeching in defiance pecking my hands until he drew blood. But I saw beyond the fury to his fear. I felt his heart racing under my fingers. So I held him close until he calmed down. Then I took him to the "Bird Lady" a neighbour who is known for nursing injured birds back to health. She would know what to do. Some people are like that bird. They lash out in fury against those who try to help them. But God knows the fear and brokenness that lie underneath. We can all say with David "O Lord, you have searched me and known me". Psalm 139:1. Let's pray and ask the Lord to help us to be sensitive to their hurt. Let's respond with love draw them close to us and take them to the one who can heal their broken hearts. God wants to bind the broken heart and wipe each teardrop dry. If you give Him all the pieces.

George Muller

A Man of Prayer and Great Faith

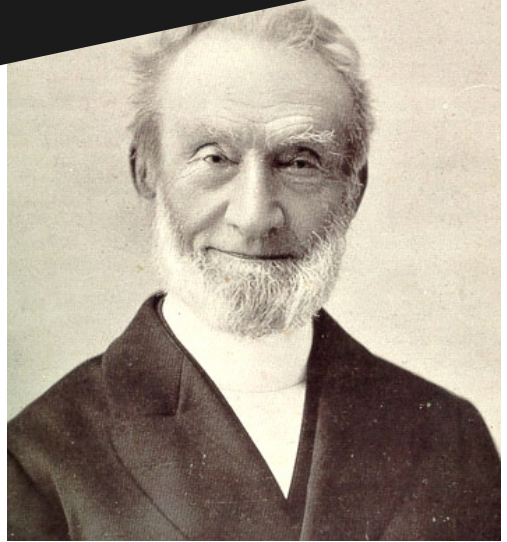

In this month of November where we reflect on Thanksgiving, let us learn important lessons of faith and prayer from the life of George Muller.

Early Life

Muller was born in Prussia (modern day Germany) in 1805. His father was a tax collector and George would often steal from his father. Not only was young Muller a thief, he was also a gambler and a drunkard. According to Müller's in 1819, 14-year-old Muller on the night his mother died "was out with his friends playing cards at a tavern, and spent much of the next day drinking, unaware of his mother's death."^[1] Muller's parents did not know the Lord either, so they had no way to train him in the ways of a Christian son.

Halle

Young George Muller was sent to Halle at the age of 20 to study to become a Lutheran minister, not because he was a believer, but so he could have a comfortable lifestyle. Despite studying to become a minister, Muller continued in his reckless lifestyle. He would often steal from his friends. Muller and a group of his friends went to Switzerland for a summer, through Muller forging their father's signatures.

A Life Changing Bible Study

One day, Beta (one of Muller's friends) invited him to a Bible study that met on Saturday nights. Muller had never experienced anything like it. The students prayed on their knees, sang songs and listened to a message written by a minister. Muller said to Beta on the way home, "all we have seen on our journey to Switzerland, and all our former pleasures, are as nothing in comparison with this evening."¹²¹ That very week, Muller got on his knees and committed his life to Christ.

Missionary

After his choice to follow Christ, young Muller decided to become a missionary, but his father disapproved. Young Muller decided to not take any of his father's money for tuition. Muller prayed for his tuition to be provided for. One day, some American professors came in to ask if he would be their translators. When Muller found out it would pay more than the normal going rate for translators, he agreed. Thus, his first prayer request for tuition was answered.

Missionary in Bristol

After college, Muller went to train with the London Missionary Society to become a missionary to the Jews. He became ill during his training and had to move to another part of the country for a time in order to get better. While he was away, he became convinced that the imminent return of Christ was soon. After getting better, Muller returned to London, where he quit his training. He wanted to start his missionary work right away. He started preaching in Bristol. While there, Muller could not help but notice the orphans out on the street. He had to do something, but what could he do? Muller came up with the idea of starting an orphanage. Many in his congregation mocked him, telling him it was not what they did in England. Muller wanted to prove them wrong and to show them with God, he could start an orphanage. As he prayed for funds and workers to be provided for, people started donating to the orphanage and offering to help in the orphanage in various ways.

A Man of Prayer

In 1836, Muller opened his first orphanage on Wilson Street. At first there were no children and then he realized he and his wife had not prayed for children. Once they started praying, children came pouring in. Muller had to build multiple orphanages, because of the demand. Eventually, there were too many children on Wilson Street. The neighbors started complaining about the children. Muller knew it was time to start looking for a new place. As usual, he prayed for a future home for the orphanages. The orphanages eventually moved to Ashley Down, where there was more room for the children and for the orphanages to grow.

One morning, the children were hungry and had gotten ready for school. They sat down at the table and blessed the food that was to come. All of the sudden, there was a knock at the door. Standing in the door way, was the baker. He told Muller that he couldn't sleep and decided to bake bread for the children. The next moment, there was a knock at the door. Standing there was the milkman. His truck had broken down and he wanted to give all the milk to the orphans before it spoiled. It was just enough food for the orphans to have their fill.

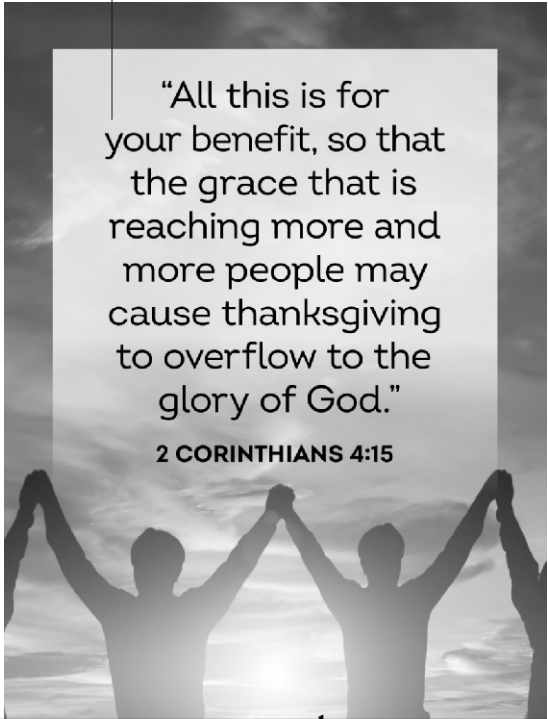

Death

On March 9, 1989 Muller was leading a prayer meeting at the church he pastored at in Bristol. The next day, March 10, Muller died at the age of 92. A whole procession of orphans who had been impacted by his work and church members (who he continued to preach to even while running the orphanages) followed his coffin.

After George's dramatic conversion, he became a man of prayer. He knew that God would provide for all his needs and even the orphan's needs. Through the story of Muller, we can learn to persevere through prayer and that God will answer prayers in His timing.

Amy Carmichael

1867-1951

One of the best-known and respected missionaries of the first half of the 20th century was Amy Carmichael. Amy Carmichael was born in 1867 into a well-to-do North Ireland Christian family. In her teen years, she was educated at a Wesleyan Methodist boarding school; and at age 13, while still in boarding school, she accepted Christ as Savior. When she was age 18, her father died, leaving the family in difficult financial circumstances. The family moved to Belfast. There she became involved in visiting in the slums, and seeing the terrible conditions under which many women and girls worked in the factories, she began a ministry with these women. It was a work based on faith alone in God, and He met the needs in most remarkable ways.

Amy received her Macedonian call in 1892 at the age of 24. Initially Amy travelled to Japan for fifteen months, but she later found her lifelong vocation in India. She was commissioned by the Church of England Zenana Missionary Society. Much of her work was with young ladies. The organization she founded was known as the Dohnavur Fellowship. Dohnavur is situated in Tamil Nadu, thirty miles from the southern tip of India. Under her loving guidance, the fellowship would become a place of sanctuary for more than one thousand children who would otherwise have faced a bleak future. In an effort to respect Indian culture, members of the organization wore Indian dress and the children were given Indian names. She herself dressed in Indian clothes, dyed her skin with coffee, and often travelled long distances on India's hot, dusty roads to save just one child from suffering.

In 1931, Carmichael was badly injured in a fall, which left her bedridden much of the time until her death. Amy Carmichael died in India in 1951 at the age of 83. She asked that no stone be put over her grave; instead, the children she had cared for put the single inscription "Amma", which means mother in Tamil.

The story of her life, and the legacy of her own writings, still inspire people throughout the world today.

THE WILL OF GOD...

The will of God will never take you,
Where the grace of God cannot keep you,
Where the arms of God cannot support you,
Where the riches of God cannot supply your needs,
Where the power of God cannot endow you.

The will of God will never take you,
Where the Spirit of God cannot work through you,
Where the wisdom of God cannot teach you,
Where the army of God cannot protect you,
Where the hands of God cannot mold you.

The will of God will never take you,
Where the love of God cannot enfold you,
Where the mercies of God cannot sustain you,
Where the peace of God cannot calm your fears,
Where the authority of God cannot overrule for you.

The will of God will never take you,
Where the comfort of God cannot dry your tears,
Where the Word of God cannot feed you,
Where the miracles of God cannot be done for you,
Where the omnipresence of God cannot find you.

Everything happens for a purpose.
We may not see the wisdom of it all now,
but trust and believe in the Lord
that everything is for the best.
